

How to Access IR@IIPA

Institutional Repositories (IR)

- IR is an Organization based set of services which the organization offers to the members of its community for the management and dissemination of digital materials created by the institution and its community members. It is most essentially an organizational commitment to the stewardship of these digital initiative towards scholarly landscape, including long-term preservation, where appropriate, as well as organization and access or distribution

Content/ Data Streams:

- ❑ Published Research Material Ex: Journal articles, Books, Book chapters, Conference papers, Annual Reports
- ❑ Other Content Streams Ex: working papers, Thesis/dissertations, technical reports, committee reports presentations, Presidential Addresses

Why Establish an IR?

- Institutional Benefits
 - Stewardship of scholarly output
 - Efficiencies through centralization
 - Providing outlets for monographs and other specialty publications
 - Persistent URLs - Ensuring persistent access to Institutional intellectual output
 - Proactive response to scholarly communication crisis/Fostering open access movement

How to Access IIPA Repository

- Step 1 – Go to home Page of IIPA Library website <http://www.iipa.org.in/www/iipalibrary/iipa/home.php>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) Library. The header features the IIPA logo on the left, the name in Hindi and English in the center, and a date on the right. A navigation bar contains links to Home, About Library, i-Portal, Useful Links, Ask a Librarian, Suggest a Book, and Contact Us. The main content area is divided into several sections: a list of digital resources on the left, a central text block describing the library's collection and services, and a right sidebar with a search dropdown and a 'Latest @ IIPA' section. At the bottom, there is a calendar for October 2017 and a section for 'Resources and Research Tools' with links to various journals and newspapers.

The IIPA Library is one of the major social science resources in India. It has a collection of about 2,15,909 volumes of books and periodicals and receives 327 current periodicals. As on March 31, 2015 the computerized library database has 1,21,819 records relating to books and 1,07,874 records relating to periodical articles.

The collection is particularly rich in the areas of public administration, management sciences, economics, planning and development, political science, sociology, rural and urban studies, gender studies and environmental sciences. The Public Document Section of the Library which contains Census of India publications, reports of various committees and commissions appointed by the Central and State Governments, National Sample Survey reports, annual reports of various ministries and departments of the Government of India, and select publications of international organizations, is acknowledged to be one of the richest collections in the country.

Most of the Library functions and services are computerized. The Library is providing a variety of current awareness services. It regularly brings out monthly List of Additions: Book Alert. Quarterly List of Significant Articles: Article Alerts, and weekly Current Contents and News Alert to keep its readers informed of the incoming documents. It undertakes literature survey and makes subject bibliographies available on demand. The Library has internet and wi-fi facility.

The Library remains open on all days except on National Holidays, and Holi, Dussehra and Diwali. It is open from 9.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. from Monday through Friday; 9.00 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. on Saturdays and holidays.

Item 4: Address by the President of the IIPA, Dr. Shankar Dayal Sharma

Hon'ble Home Minister, Shri S.B. Chavan, Prof. M.V. Mathur, Shri T.N. Chaturvedi, Shri G.C.L. Joneja, Director of IIPA, Shri P.K. Umashankar, Members of the Executive Council, Members of the Faculty in IIPA, Members of the General Body, Ladies and Gentlemen!

This is the fourth time that I am present here in your Annual General Body Meeting. This time we are meeting under circumstances where IIPA has go to do a lot of thinking about its work, an indication of which was given by the Director of IIPA, when he talked about the changes in the international and national scene, and the thinking was referred to by Shri S.B. Chavan.

We all know about these changes. But, what are we to learn from them and how can we adjust to the changing circumstances, this comes to one's mind immediately. For instance, I personally feel that it is essential that the Institute should try to understand and study the factors which led to the failure of the centrally planned and monitored economic system of erstwhile USSR and,
